The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, he was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended into hell. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer of Blessing

Let us pray. God of every good gift and blessing, we bring these offerings with the full expectation that they will become connected to your plans and purposes for your world. Guide us into deeper joy as we celebrate the privilege of giving back what you have first given to us. May these gifts become a beacon of light in a darkened world. Amen.

The Table

We gather at the table to taste the sweetness of God's love in bread and wine.

The risen and ascended Christ is present in bread and wine.

We eat and drink life, forgiveness and salvation when we come to the meal of Christ's victory over sin and death.

All are welcome at this table. Come and experience the redemptive power of the living Christ.

Words of Institution

As often as we eat this bread and drink this cup we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes again.

Christ has died! Christ is risen! Christ will come again!

Holy Spirit, come and bring your peace to our troubled hearts.
Holy Spirit, come and give us the kind of peace that only you can give. Holy Spirit, come and help us to be your peacemakers in this world. Amen!
